

Subject: Testimony in Opposition to SB 1105

Allowing anyone certified in education to teach our children afflicted with autism is wrong.
This proposed legislation would be detrimental the these children.
It takes special training and education to evaluate and help autistic children. We would be making another critical error in the State of Connecticut.

Margaret Jensen
5 Pinney Hill Rd Ext
Willington, Connecticut